This is what my amazing couples had to say ...

"Paul Taylor was fabulous. We felt very comfortable from the initial meeting to the wedding day, which he delivered exactly what we wanted. He wasn't pushy with any of his suggestions, but felt he had a nice range of unusual things to choose from such as the wedding quiz (we we and our guests loved)."

"Our wedding was unique, different, fun & personalised for us making it memorable for our guests, all because of Paul. He was there every step of the way for us with advice, help & support from suppliers to any issues that arose making it stress-free & a happy experience planning the most important day of our lives. He was extremely professional, very friendly & approachable and we formed a good relationship. He made the whole day flow perfectly & kept our guests happy & informed throughout."

"Outstanding, without doubt took our day from ordinary to extraordinary. He was the talk of the wedding; ALL of our guests have commented on how different Paul was to the 'ordinary' wedding DJ. We can 100% genuinely say that without him our day would not have been as special or amazing as it was. He even crafted our love story, presenting it before our first dance - it left our guests laughing & crying as our special journey was shared with our guests. Paul brings new, different and unique ideas"

"Paul was attentive, friendly and reassuring right from the 1st meeting a year before the wedding. Nothing was a bother at all, even though we couldn't make a decision for toffee on a number of things! He went out of his way to make our day special and we are extremely grateful. Just brilliant!"

"Paul was amazing throughout, extremely professional. From the time we met Paul we felt very comfortable with him, nothing was too much trouble, he really helped make our day amazing. All our guests during the day commented on how lovely he was. He put together all the days music, amazing."

"Paul's attention to detail leading up to and during our wedding was second to none! We felt we could relax & leave everything to Paul on the day. Our dance floor was full from start to finish and friends are still talking about it! We wouldn't have any hesitation recommending to friends and family"

"Paul simply made our evening, we simply could not have asked for a better host. Paul takes a lot of pride in his work and really got to know us, not just as our hosts but as friends, a really down to earth, funny guy, we will definitely keep in touch. We have so many happy memories and Paul really did contribute to those."

"Paul offers so much more than just a DJ. He puts his life, soul and smile into his couples and it makes such a difference! Without Paul's guidance pre-wedding, the day wouldn't have been anywhere near as perfect as it was! He came prepared for all eventualities! I had ordered a popping balloon for our first dance, which didn't arrive. Not to worry, Paul was there with his confetti canon!! We didn't miss out on the one picture I'd really planned for because of Paul! Post wedding he's also amazing!"

"The party hosts (Paul) were fantastic on our wedding. He had many fantastic ideas for things to do on the day and these gave our day a special feeling. The Love Story was a fantastic idea and all my guests loved this as they had never seen this before. It was so personal and really made a lovely introduction before the first dance. I would recommend them to anyone as they gave a very professional and personal service the whole way though."

"We booked Paul from the party hosts quite late on in our wedding planning. We only had a couple of weeks to go before the event and we're looking at dj's online when my partner remembered Paul from a wedding fair. We contacted him and had a response straight away with a meeting booked for a couple of days later. Straight from the off Paul was professional and friendly and made us both feel at ease. He made the whole process easy and gave us some great ideas that we hadn't considered."

"We booked Paul after being recommended by a Family friend, from the outset Paul was interested in what we wanted to do, he had lots of ideas and suggestions to help, including things we hadn't thought of which helped immensely, he kept in touch and on the run up to the wedding we had another meeting to go over the plans and final touches. On the day Paul arrived promptly, his hosting matched the relaxed manner that was needed and musically catered for everyone. Every wedding needs a Paul Taylor"

"Paul was absolutely incredible! He was so friendly, approachable and guided us through each decision. His inspired advice was so helpful and always focused on helping us achieve our dream. He made our wedding the success it was and our guests are still talking about it months later!"

"Paul Taylor exudes and inspires a confidence which is complimented with empathy and passion in all his work. He was a first class master of ceremonies providing a structured and professional approach throughout the day. Excellent value and I cannot recommend him highly enough."

Our wedding was the best day of our lives. And it was made better with the presence of Paul, who thoroughly entertained us, the wedding party and the evening guests. It was so unique, and played a massive part of our day that will not easily be forgotten. So much effort was put into it and it really shows. The entertainment is still the biggest talk of our wedding day. Along with Mr and Mrs game, the quiz, my Dj set, advice cards, the inflatable props. 100% brilliant."

"Paul was fantastic. From the help in the early stage planning right through to his efforts on the day was really appreciated. All our guests have commented on what a great job he did, many saying it was the best wedding they have been to. I think this is largely down to the way Paul ran things."

"Paul the party DJ was outstanding! He was far more than just a DJ. He offered his help with everything along the way. On the wedding day I felt so relaxed because Paul knew everything we wanted and offered so much to personalise our special day. I would recommend him to everyone!"

"The service we got from Paul from the party hosts was not only that of a professional one but a friendly one too,. He truly made our day so much more easier and relaxed and provided such brilliant entertainment. He was definitely money well spent and we would not hesitate to recommend to anyone!"

"I can't speak highly enough of Paul. Paul's input into mine and Emma's wedding was massive, he took time out to meet us to discuss not just music but all the other extras that made our wedding a huge success. 300 words to write a review is no where near enough, all I can say is thanks Paul, brill"

"Paul the most friendly, passionate & knowledgeable DJ/Host we found & there really was no comparison Had bonus of seeing him in action at a family wedding so knew when exploring options we should meet him To experience the pre-wedding service as well simply confirmed he ws the best & enhanced our day"

"We were recommended Paul (The Party Hosts) by a close friend who works in the industry. Although the package we wanted was more than we originally considered paying, the level of professionalism & passion that Paul displayed, in conjunction with some brilliant and unique party ideas we were instantly sold. Paul was always on hand & met with us on numerous occasions during the planning phase - A near 2 hour round trip. From start to finish... A brilliant person and a true professional. Perfect"

"I felt comfortable when I met Paul, bags of experience showed on his 1st visit and his ideas were great"

WHY They Booked ...

"We booked Paul from the Party Hosts because initially he was recommended but the enthusiasm he has for every wedding to be a success was infectious so we knew we wouldn't regret it"

"I saw the way Paul worked and when we met him what he was able to produce for our day to our specific needs, plus he is a very friendly person that makes you feel at ease, taking away any stresses on the day"

"I booked Paul before the husband even met him! I knew he would love him! He covered everything we required and for a great price! He offered help and support pre-booking which I love as I'm not the most organised!!"

"Because he was so friendly, approachable and full of incredible ideas that really matched with the way we wanted our wedding to be! They had contingency plans for everything and so many options to chose from! Everyone should have a party host, they are incredible!"

"Paul Taylor was recommended by our photographer and as soon as we had our initial meeting with him, we were hooked. He offered exactly what were looking for and was a genuine person."

"Recommendation and the website helped but we made our final decision on meeting Paul. He is a very genuine person who really cared about our special day and wanted it to be exactly as we wanted it. His unique ideas were great and the love story he told on our behalf reduced many to tears."

"We booked the party hosts because they offered that something extra for the wedding day. We wanted it to be as fun & happy as possible and that was achieved through all the things we arranged with Paul. He made the day go smoothly and was very entertaining. He did everything we asked and more! Paul was happy to help with anything along the way and was always there for a chat if needed. He was friendly and professional and really wanted to understand what we wanted from our wedding to make sure he made it happen. Every penny we spent on Paul was well worth it. Fantastic!!!"

"The professional yet friendly and attentive attitude of Paul, the information that was given at our first meeting reassured us that he would be paying close attention to what we wanted and was happy to give us a service that was bespoke rather than a 'package'. Also, the fact that we were put under no pressure at all, we were left to think about it and go back in our own time. Everyone should experience this level of service on the biggest day of their lives."

"I met Paul and he was lovely, professional and had some lovely ideas. He was a bit out of our original budget but he worked with us and we came up with a payment plan that we could afford to make sure that we could have everything we wanted."

"Paul's level of professionalism and willingness to help. The amount of unique ideas and suggestions he had to make our reception the best party possible. The level of detail Paul went to, in order to plan every element of our day. The clear passion and excitement that Paul had for his job and desire to be part of our perfect, big day"

"I first met Paul at a 'Australian travelling leaving party' of which I was working at. He completely transformed our very boring function room with his lighting equipment and I was very impressed with his TV that showed pictures to the guests. His music was what I can only describe as 'Awesome' and It struck me whilst working on a very busy bar how I could hear every word he said through the microphone, something that didn't happen very often with many DJ's - this was something that was very important to me when looking for a DJ for our wedding as I wanted my guests to hear the speeches and announcements perfectly. I had a chat with paul, he mentioned some things he does at weddings which made me want him to be my DJ even more! He also had this friendly approachable manner, and was very confident, something I also was looking for. He gave me his card & a pack about The Party Hosts, I was even more impressed with how professional and organised he was. I checked out his website and he came over to ours for an informal chat where he won my husband over too and we booked up with Paul. Still to this day I am so thankful and glad I chose to go with him, He made my whole day perfect and he was almost like having a wedding planner included. He couldn't do enough for us and was always available to contact, responding quickly which was such a great help. I highly recommend The Party Hosts and would definitely book Paul again in the future for special family parties."

"We booked after a Skype call with Paul, we spoke for about an hour and he took me through all the things he can do on the day, things to think about and ways to make the evening go smoothly and above all make it special!"

"Paul comes highly recommended, and we felt very confident trusting him with our special day. The various unique touches that Paul adds to the day were also a big reason for us choosing him.
